New Business:

Wildlife Management - The program has been successful and most geese are gone.

Plantings - Linda Henderson will look into floating gardens similar to those on Wesley Lake and possible grants to fund them.

Sal Galasetti and Lynda Brown will look into expanding the small pod gardens along the lake.

Bill Grafton will look into an annual fundraiser for FLC.

Anthony will try to obtain FL water quality test results from Monmouth University.

Public Comments:

Loretta Martenz and her husband Dennis of 400 Lake Terrace asked if the FLC would consider a walking path along the entire lake similar to Spring Lake. They also thanked the FLC for recent improvements including the geese management.

Les Jacobsen of 217 Lake Terrace thanked the FLC for the geese management.

Louisa Pastor of 82 Broadway, Ocean Grove asked if the FLC could work with the OGCMA to add paintings between the walking path and the bulkhead.

Capt. Al Modjeski will be looking into grant money to fund future improvement projects.

Anthony DiMaio made a motion to adjourn the meeting. Sal Galasetti seconded and all voted in favor.

The meeting concluded at 6:45.
